

Bibbulmun Track Visit Diary

The Rainbow Serpent from the Aboriginal Dreamtime, the Waugal, is pictured on the yellow triangle signs which appear on the Track. They show the recommended direction to walk in.

Earn up to 3 hours in your Passport to Learning for walking the Bibbulmun Track and answering the questions on the next two pages. Earn up to 10 hours in total per year!

1. Get ready to walk

Go to the Bibbulmun Track Foundation website to find a part of the track to walk with your family. There are sections in Albany, in the Peel and South West regions, and in Perth. You might walk just part of a section as a day trip, or do a whole section as a holiday adventure!

- Family-friendly guides: www.bibbulmuntrack.org.au/walk-the-track/bibbulmun-walking-breaks/family-friendly-itineraries/ (click "Download itinerary" for each section)
- Online Map: www.bibbulmuntrack.org.au/trip-planner/track-sections/
- To help you navigate through the track, we recommend purchasing an official hardcopy map: www.bibbulmuntrack.org.au/shop/category/maps

2. Walk with your family

Happy walking ☺ take a photo of yourself on the track! You might like to print out a copy of this Visit Diary to bring with you and fill out as you go.
